

Berne Horology

From pocket watches to grandfather clocks, Berne Horology stocks all sorts of models, including Rolex, Patek Philippe, Cartier and many more. The vintage watch and clock shop has been open for more than 50 years, and has long been a favourite among the city's many collectors. Owner Johnny Ng, whose parents opened the shop, has been working with clocks his whole life. He estimates the shop has around 40,000 watches collected from all across the world. Prices for antique watches start at a few hundred dollars on the low end, up to $100,000 on the more expensive side, while clocks usually range between $1,000 and $200,000 depending on their size, casing, age, timing mechanism, provenance and condition.
